The Lost Puppy

On Saturday morning, Maya went to the park with her brother, Liam. The sun was bright, and many children were playing.

While they were walking near the swings, Maya heard a soft sound. “Woof... woof...” They looked around and saw a small brown puppy hiding behind a bench. The puppy looked scared and hungry.

Liam checked the puppy’s collar. There was a name tag that said, “Buddy” and a phone number.

Maya used her mother’s phone to call the number. Soon, a happy woman came running toward them.

“Oh, Buddy! I’ve been looking everywhere for you!” she said.

The woman thanked Maya and Liam for helping. The children felt proud as they watched Buddy wag his tail happily.
